

PRIVACY

Our goal is to maintain your trust and confidence when handling personal information about you.

Collection of information

When you visit our website, we collect information such as IP address, geographic location, Internet service provider, and pages visited. We use "cookie" technology to collect site statistical information and improve your customer experience. Cookies set by Zaffre Health Solutions, LLC don't capture any personally identifiable information, such as your individual email address.

We automatically collect some statistical data as you browse our websites. For example, we automatically collect your Internet protocol (IP) address used to connect your computer to the Internet, browser type and version, operating system and platform, average time spent on our site, pages viewed, information searched for, access times, clickstreamdata, and other relevant information about your online experience. The information we collect is used to help us improve the design of and access to the website and other uses not prohibited by law.

You may browse our website anonymously by choosing not to provide us with any personally identifiable information (PII), such as your name or email address, or choosing not to register during your visits to our sites. When you browse this way, we won't link your online activity with the accounts you may have with us.

Sharing / selling of information

Zaffre Health Solutions, LLC doesn't sell or share personal information outside except as permitted by law or as specifically authorized by you.

Cookies and clear GIFs

"Cookies" are small files that are stored by your web browser to help a particular system recognize you and the pages you visited in a website. This website may use cookies to make your online experience more convenient. Additionally, this website may use data from cookies for a variety of internal purposes, such as studying how users navigate this website. We don't collect any personal information from cookies. Further, no other information collected from cookies can be linked back to your personal information. Most browsers automatically accept cookies, but if you prefer, you can set yours to refuse cookies. Even without a cookie, you can still use most of the features on this website.

"Clear gifs" are tiny graphics with a unique identifier, similar in function to cookies, that are used to track the online movements of website users. The main difference between the two is that clear gifs are invisible on the page and are much smaller than cookies. This website doesn't collect any personal information from clear gifs. Further, no information collected from clear gifs can be linked back to your personal information.

This website may use third-party web analytics services to track and analyze anonymous usage and volume statistical information from visitors to help the administration of this website, improve this website's performance, and to report website traffic. These web analytics services use cookies, clear gifs, and other web monitoring technologies to help track visitor behavior on behalf of this website. These services don't use these technologies to collect any personally identifiable information from this website's visitors.
